

Attractions of Helena

Here are just a few of the great attractions that Helena has to offer.

Tour the State Capitol

There are a number of ways you can tour Montana's State Capitol campus. Self-guided tour booklets are available at the information desk on the first floor of the Capitol. Groups can make reservations to enjoy a guided tour. Scheduled tours are available at the Original Governor's Mansion. If you want to sit back and relax, the Last Chance Tour Train will take you on a trip around the capitol area and past a number of other Helena highlights. The "train" departs from in front of Montana's Museum, on the east side of the Capitol building.

LAST CHANCE TOUR TRAIN AND LONDON BUS

Relax for an hour and tour the town of Helena. The train will take you through a residential area of town to view some historic homes of famous Montanans, the State Capitol, St. Helena Cathedral (exact replica of a spectacular European church) Last Chance Gulch, and more!

Montana's Museum

This Montana Historical Society museum is filled with interesting artifacts from the state's past and present.

Holter Museum of Art

Helena's Holter Museum of Art focuses on modern and contemporary art. The Holter Museum of Art also features different national and international exhibitions.

Archie Bray Foundation for the Ceramic Arts

The Archie Bray Foundation for the Ceramic Arts is a world-renown artist residence program.

Mount Helena City Park

This 620-acre park includes miles of hiking trails that take you through a variety of terrain. Most trails lead around the mountain; the Hogback Trail and the 1906 trail reach Mount Helena's summit.

Gates of the Mountains

Take a boat tour through a gorgeous river canyon, where you will see interesting geology and a variety of wildlife. Gates of the Mountain was named by Merriwether Lewis in July 1805 during the Corps expedition. Highly recommended.

Cathedral of St. Helena

This Gothic-style cathedral, inspired by the Votive Church of the Sacred Heart in Vienna, Austria, was built around 1910. Guided tours are available by appointment or tour on your own daily year-round 7:15 am - 6:00 pm. Please note, Masses may be occurring.

Enjoy the walking mall on Last Chance for shopping, eating and entertainment desires. Go visit Helena's historical Reader's Alley above the walking mall.
